Missing side should be applied without losing existing side on child outer bottom only child top only after child

Conditional side application must preserve already-set child side top+bottom outer child has top and bottom after child

When both sides are supplied together, a missing side should still be applied outer bottom + left child left + right after inner