Existing child margin should not be doubled when parent gives nothing outer no left margin child margin-left 10pt after child

Nested wrappers should not double the existing child value again level1 level2 child margin-left 10pt after Only assign + combine when a new side value is actually applied parent has left spacing child with explicit left spacing after child